Book Collection of the Society of American Florists Donor Biographical Sketches

Herman B. Dorner was born on April 10, 1878, in Lafayette, Indiana, and died in 1955. His parents were the proprietors of the prominent Lafayette Greenhouses. He held a Bachelor of Science degree and a Master of Science degree from Purdue University, and wrote Window Gardening, which was published by Bobbs Merrill of Indianapolis, in 1908. Dorner was a Professor of Floriculture at the University of Illinois from 1911 to 1946. He joined the Society of American Florists (SAF) in 1908, and acted as the Society's Secretary in 1910 and 1911. The archival collection of Herman B. Dorner Papers, 1891-1938 is held by the University of Illinois Archives. A biographical note may be found online at: <http://web.library.uiuc.edu/ahx/uasfa/0812023.pdf>. Related materials include the Proceedings of the American Carnation Society, documents relating to the SAF, and records pertaining to Dorner's involvement in the founding of the Florists Telegraph Delivery Association, later known as FTD.

Gardeners' and Florists' Club of Baltimore was incorporated in 1888. The Gardeners' and Florists' Club of Baltimore co-sponsored the annual convention of the SAF in Baltimore, Maryland in 1911. A souvenir convention program, found in this collection in Series VIII, box 52, shows pictures of its members. An excerpt from the convention program states: "Previous to and until about 1880 Baltimore had an association known as the 'Maryland Horticultural Society.' ...The old association was becoming anemic...[so] The Secretary, Mr. W.B. Sands...[called] a meeting of 'all who take an interest in any branch of horticulture.'" The result was the Gardeners' and Florists' Club of Baltimore. It was founded with a beneficial clause to its membership that upon the death of a member, the member's estate would receive $100. This fund was maintained by the periodic collection of $1 from each member as needed to support the fund. The club was also responsible for the publication of the Florists Exchange of Baltimore.

Donald S. Grant died of consumption on February 10, 1888. For many years he was the head gardener to T. Harrison Garrett, whose family managed the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad. According to his obituary, listed in The Proceedings of the Fourth Annual Convention of the Society of American Florists: Held at New York, N.Y., August 21st, 22nd, and 23rd, 1888, "His library contained almost every horticultural work published up to the present time." His residence or work locations may be partially traced using his inscriptions in his volumes. In 1869 he lived or worked in "Springfield." In 1871 and 1877, he records his location as "Hampton, Baltimore County, Maryland." This may have been the location of the Garrett estate. As early as May 1873, he inscribed his volumes with "Botanic Gardens." This inscription appears again with "Jan. 1877" and "May 1877." One volume is inscribed as a gift from William Smith to Donald Grant. Donald Grant joined the SAF in 1886 and remained a member until his death..

Charles P. Mueller of Wichita, Kansas, was a lifetime member of the SAF as of 1908. He also served as the Vice President for the Kansas state chapter of the SAF in the early 1900s. He was listed as an acting member of the Society in the 1929 membership roster. Mueller may have owned a greenhouse in Wichita with C.A. Rose in the mid-1880s. A photograph of this greenhouse may be viewed at: <http://specialcollections.wichita.edu/wdl/decades/1880.asp>.

William R. Smith was born in Scotland sometime between 1828 and 1831, and died in 1912. He emigrated to the United States in 1852. The bulk of his career was spent working in the U.S. Botanic Gardens (1853-1912), and he was appointed as its first superintendent around 1863. During his lifetime, William R. Smith amassed a collection of over 5,000 volumes about and by the poet Robert Burns. Upon Smith's death, the responsibility for these volumes was assumed by the trustee of his estate, Andrew Carnegie. They are now housed in The Robert Burns Library at the Masonic Temple of The Supreme Council, 33° in Washington, D.C. The Robert Burns Library website may be viewed at: <http://www.srmason-sj.org/library/collections/burns.htm>. Smith joined the SAF in 1886, and acted as Vice President of the Society in 1892, and President in 1893. He was considered to be the "father of the [SAF] national charter" according to the proposal for his memorial, which appeared in the Proceedings of the Twenty-Eighth Annual Convention of the Society of American Florists and Ornamental Horticulturists: Held at Chicago, Illinois August 20, 21, 22 and 23, 1912.
